My Great Great Grandmother, Gene Stratton-Porter Von Ein Kunde 6/21/99 On 6/17/99 my 80-year old Aunt Bonnie came for a visit and a wonderful time it was. My mother, who would have been 7 years her senior, worked on our family history for at least 25 years. Last night, prior to Aunt Bonnie's departure, she worked with me on some of the details of the diatribe. She advised me, my great great grandmother and her great grandmother, name of Mary Etta Porter was an author and used the pen name of Gene Stratton Porter. She, herself, was unaware of her works in particular relating to our Indiana heritage. Immediately I got on the internet and to my shock and dismay found she was in deed a prolific writer. I had all the information ... date of birth - location, etc. and I just could not stop my research. It thrills me beyond belief a relative of mine has brought such joy to so many over such a long span of time. Now, I cannot wait to read her writings and a biography if one exists. The search continues...0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Response to woman who thinks she is relatedVon Ein KundeI am responding to the woman who erroneously believes that her grandmother was Geneva Stratton Porter. Below see biographical information taken from biographies by Jeanette Porter Meehan (daughter of Geneva Stratton Porter), Judith Reick Long and Bertrand Richards. Mark Stratton Mary Schallenberger, married Dec 1835; 12 children; Geneva Grace born Aug 1963, in Wabash Co, Indiana, youngest of 12; married Charles Darwin Porter 1886; gave birth to 1 (one) daughter Jeanette in 1888; two grandsons: James Leo Meehan Jr, John E. Meehan; also a grand-niece Anastasia Clothier Hathaway.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. a truly delightful heartwarming storyVon Ein KundeI read this story aloud to my 10 year old daughter and 11 year old son. We laughed, we cried, we wondered what would happen next, we were oh so sorry when the book was done. My kids said it was their all time favorite of the many many books we have read aloud together. This is the kind of story that inspires great character and kindly behavior....something that is sadly lacking in most modern literature for the young. Well worth reading, alone or aloud.

KurzbeschreibungUnlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR(Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.KurzbeschreibungUnlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR(Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos.
