A great accountVon Ein KundeThis story was a great account of the turning point of college basketball, in which the view began to shift more towards the personal and academic side of the athlete as opposed to the athletic side. I would read it all over again.

KurzbeschreibungChronicle of the events surrounding the death of basketball player Len Bias and the situation at the University of Maryland.KurzbeschreibungChronicle of the events surrounding the death of basketball player Len Bias and the situation at the University of Maryland.Synopsis This is a thoughtful and compelling chronicle of the events surrounding the tragic death of Len Bias...It recounts in vivid detail a story that sent shock waves far beyond the University of Maryland to all of higher education.
