Historical AccountVon Herbert AuerSimon Hughes tells the Story of a team that had no equal in the 80s and that did not change for me till nowadays. As a teen I spent many nights watching European Championship matches of my favorite team Liverpool FC. Reading this book you realize again that yes this was a a much different time and yes Football was played in a much different way than it is today. But yes Barca, Real Madrid and others are very successful Teams from the 60ies till now, but Liverpool FC is and will always be my favorite Team worldwide.

Kurzbeschreibung During the 1980s, Liverpool Football Club dominated English football, winning six league titles, two European Cups, two FA Cups and four League Cups. In Red Machine, Simon Hughes interviews some of the most colourful characters to have played for the club during that period. The resulting interviews, set against the historical backdrop of both the club and the city, provide a vivid portrait of life at Liverpool during an era when the clubs unparalleled on-pitch success often went hand in hand with a boozy social scene fraught with rows, fights and wind-ups. The players featured here include John Barnes, Bruce Grobbelaar, Howard Gayle, Michael Robinson, John Wark, Kevin Sheedy, Nigel Spackman, Steve Staunton, David Hodgson and Craig Johnston, as well as first-team coach Ronnie Moran. Their candid, ribald and sometimes scathing recollections provide an antidote to the media-coached, on-message interviews given by todays players and combine to offer a unique insight to this exciting time in the clubs history. Pressestimmen "an excellent new book ... Eat your heart out, ProZone." (Ian Herbert The Independent) "His abilities are delivered with excellent understatement in Simon Hughes' Red Machine." (Ian Herbert The Independent) Werbetext Opens the door to both the dressing-room and the boot room at Anfield during the 1980s to reveal a wealth of untold stories from the era
